We Offer Transparency for Key Marketing Metrics

Having an up-to-date understanding of your marketing performance is vital for your business. But taking the time to sort through all the various campaign elements can be time-consuming and, most likely, doesn't happen as often as you'd like.

With the marketing report email, you'll get a complete snapshot of your marketing campaign every week, or every day, delivered straight to your inbox.

Benefits of Your Weekly/Daily Marketing Report:

- ✓ Get a snapshot of your campaign data with just enough information.
- ✓ Delivered straight to your inbox, so you don't have to do any extra work to track your campaign progress.
- ✓ Quickly access your dashboard from a link in the email and view detailed data for your campaign.
- ✓ Understand the value of your marketing campaign with the transparency of key metrics.
- ✓ Get a convenient email reminder to check your campaign progress on a daily or weekly basis.
